From the Rectory:

Dear Readers,

I can barely believe that we have already started Lent. This is the important, Christian, liturgical season where we prepare ourselves to remember the trauma of Holy Week, the horror of the crucifixion of Christ on 'Good' Friday, and then share the joy and amazement of the disciples as Jesus reveals himself in risen glory on Easter Sunday.

We welcome you to join with us in this Lenten journey, especially as we witness to our faith in the Palm Sunday procession around Slingsby and in the services following on during Holy Week.

*God bless,
Martin*
