From the Rectory:

Dear Readers,

Whether it be the current politics, the Brexit negotiations, terror attacks or survivors' stories from the Grenfell Tower disaster, life continues to throw challenges in our direction. Questions often asked are how do we cope or respond in these situations? There is no easy answer but a suggestion is to use them as a trigger to reflect on our own lives, the choices we make or how they impact on others, and what little steps can be taken to be the good neighbour to others, so the burden of all is shared. As we look beyond our own needs and share our cares, worries, joys and gifts with others, so the burden of all is shared and life looks brighter for all.

We think of those writing exams and preparing for the end of the academic year, giving thanks especially for all the hard work of our teachers and wish all happy holidays.

*God bless,
Martin*
