From the Rectory:

Dear Readers,

As I write this the sun is out, the temperature is rising and children are getting ready for their holidays. We pray that everyone may find time to relax this month and appreciate all that God has given us. Our thoughts and prayers go out to all the farmers who may not have time to relax as they begin the process of bringing in the harvest. May the weather be favourable to them and may we all be a little more sympathetic when stuck behind their agricultural equipment. We pray for all our school children, teachers and parents that they may have a wonderful relaxing holiday and will return refreshed for the new school year.

*God bless,
Martin*
