NOTICES

Thank you to the acclaimed Lewis Hamilton Band who put on a performance on 16 Sept in Coneysthorpe to raise money for the Village Hall and Church. It was most generous of them to spare the time from their recording sessions and their travelling to the major UK Blues' Festivals and to provide such an entertaining evening. (Hot Blooded Caledonian Blues - could any music fan refuse? – Ian Rankin). A first for Coneysthorpe, but we hope not the last!

Would you like to be visited? We are conscious that there are many people living in our parishes who may be lonely and appreciate being visited. If you would like to be visited, please contact Rev Martin Allwood who will organise someone to come and see you.

Slingsby Tea Towels are available and will make excellent Christmas presents. They have scenes of Slingsby on them originally painted by the late Ken Bland and are used by permission of his wife Pam. Cost £4.50, or 2 for £8.00 and are available from Tony's Farm Shop, The Methodist Chapel or Rachel Prest.

Slingsby Christmas Baking Orders Order forms will be circulated during November to be returned to Trudy by 2 Dec for delivery of baking on Sat, 9 Dec.

Slingsby Calendars now on sale £6.00 available from Janet 628625 or from Village Shop.

ADVANCE NOTICES

5 Dec, Tues, Slingsby Sowers and Growers Repeat of last year's successful garland and wreath making with Kymm Queen, £5.00 members, £7.00 non members, to include mince pies, tickets to be booked in advance from Janet Clarke 628625.

9 Dec, Sat, 7.15pm Eyes Down, Bingo, Slingsby Village Hall Refreshments served. There will be no pantomime this year due to lack of support.

19 Dec, Tues 6.00pm Slingsby Carol Singing round the village and in the Grapes Inn. Meet at the Methodist Chapel.

From the Rectory:

Dear Readers,

The clocks have gone back, the nights grow darker and winter draws near with summer a distant memory. It seems appropriate then that November is a time for remembrance. The month begins with us celebrating All Saints and All Souls, remembering those who have showed us the way to faith through the example of their lives and their deaths and particularly those dear to us who have moved on. For some a time of sorrow and heartache; for others a time to be reminded of more joyful moments. As the month progresses, we remember the horrors of war, and those who gave their all for our freedom today. The month ends with the beginning of Advent, the start of the new Christian year, as we prepare ourselves for the coming of the "light" into our darkness, as St John puts it, Jesus coming as a defenceless new-born baby. This time of remembrance may stir up buried pain and emotion, so let's make that extra effort to look out for one another being that true neighbour and friend.

*God bless,
Martin*
